KIOGA will be following the current Sedgwick County COVID-19 guidelines at the time of the event.

The Kansas Independent Oil & Gas Association (KIOGA) believes in seeking common ground, through common sense solutions, to the challenges facing the Kansas oil and gas industry. Our bipartisan approach provides a uniquely powerful voice for our members at the state and national level.

Our work is critical. Your support is vital.

WELCOME

ON BEHALF OF THE KANSAS INDEPENDENT OIL & GAS ASSOCIATION (KIOGA), LET US BE THE FIRST TO WELCOME YOU BACK TO WICHITA AND THE CENTURY II PERFORMING ARTS & CONVENTION CENTER. WE ARE PLEASED THAT YOU HAVE CHOSEN TO JOIN US FOR KIOGA'S 84TH ANNUAL CONVENTION. THIS WILL BE THE FIRST LIVE KIOGA ANNUAL CONVENTION SINCE 2019. KIOGA HAS WORKED TO IMPROVE EFFICIENCIES, AND WE HAVE ORGANIZED OUR ANNUAL CONVENTION TO REFLECT SOME OF THESE VALUE-ADDED CHANGES. JOIN US FOR THE KIOGA 2021 ANNUAL CONVENTION AS WE FOCUS ON HONORING TRADITION AND BUILDING THE FUTURE.

In this challenging year, filled with anxiety about impacts from COVID-19 and uncertain market dynamics, there is no better place than KIOGA's Annual Convention to bring together Kansas' top independent producers and leading service and supply providers to discuss some of the most important issues currently facing the industry and your business. Speakers, seminars, and events will focus on value reconstruction for our industry as we look at recovery, stability, and growth as well as actions taken to keep KIOGA alive and thriving.

We are also pleased and honored to have former U.S. Secretary of State Mike Pompeo providing the keynote address at our Monday Luncheon.

And as always, our trade show and expo provides an unparalleled opportunity to connect and network with industry peers and leading service providers who share your concerns and interests.

KIOGA, its members, and allies are now as busy, relevant, and strong in our efforts as at any time in the association's history. Of course, it has always been KIOGA members as leaders in this industry that have driven our success and set the way for creating a thriving network of advocacy and information that we are now able to exercise and expand upon.

Your support of KIOGA remains the driving force behind the association's success in Topeka, Washington, across Kansas and elsewhere. Please take a minute to register today. We are grateful for this opportunity to come together and hope you will benefit from your participation. ✍

Revamping energy policy is at the forefront of the Biden administration's climate change agenda. How will the decisions of the Biden administration and Congress impact you and your business? What should the role of the federal government be in achieving a comprehensive, balanced, and responsible energy policy? Join this seminar to hear what issues are currently in play with the 117th Congress and what may lie ahead in future energy policy. Your participation with questions or comments for the panelists is encouraged.

Oil & Gas Industry:
A Domestic and International Perspective
Former U.S. Secretary of State Mike Pompeo

The Honorable Mike Pompeo—former U.S. Secretary of State and former KIOGA member—brings a unique perspective on the international and domestic oil and gas industry. His tenure, contacts, and travel as both the CIA Director and Secretary of State afford him a wide view of events, dynamics, and players in the oil and gas industry. Please join us as Michael R. Pompeo shares some of those experiences and views.

AFTERNOON BREAKOUT SESSIONS

3:00 p.m.–4:00 p.m.
Cypress Room A,B

The Weaponization of Climate Science
Mike Thompson of Mike Thompson LLC

The term “follow the science” has turned into a familiar phrase used to derail common sense on everything from wearing masks to energy policy. It works because so many people believe that science has the answers to everything these days. Mike Thompson, a renowned meteorologist, explains how following the current narrative on climate science has turned into a danger and a disaster for our society and our country. You will come away with a different perspective on what you hear and read in the media about climate, and how it has been used as a weapon against us!

Land and Legal Implications of Unitization for Enhanced Recovery Purposes
Redbud Room B,C

Jon Schlatter, Law Office of Morris Laing
Nathan Jiwanlal, Legal Counsel & Land Manager of Trans Pacific Oil Corporation

As producing oil and gas fields mature, operators may seek opportunities to enhance the recovery of hydrocarbons from those fields. Oftentimes, enhanced recovery comes in the form of waterfloods or other forms of injection, which may necessarily drive hydrocarbons and other fluids across property lines. This type of operation touches on various property rights, including surface rights, mineral rights, correlative rights, and contractual rights under the affected lease agreements, joint operating agreements and other agreements. Unitization is the prudent way of executing and implementing these projects while protecting the rights of stakeholders, and unitization can be compelled under Kansas statutes. This presentation explores the land and legal implications of unitization for enhanced recovery purposes and describes how to effectively execute these projects.

EXHIBIT CONTRACT

KIOGA

I. The undersigned (Lessee) hereby applies for commercial rate exhibit space at the 2021 Meeting of the Kansas Independent Oil & Gas Association (KIOGA), to be held at the Hyatt Regency Wichita, Kansas August 15–17, 2021. The meeting is conducted by the Kansas Independent Oil & Gas Association. All payments, correspondence, notifications and other communications to KIOGA concerning the subject matter of this application and contract shall be sent to Holly McGinnis at holly@kioga.org or KIOGA, Attn: Holly McGinnis, 800 SW Jackson Street, Suite #1400, Topeka, KS 66612.

II. Lessee payments must be made in full. Please email holly@kioga.org to receive advance invoice.

III. 60 days prior to August 15, 2021, KIOGA will send to the Lessee a copy of the 2021 KIOGA Annual Meeting Official Exhibitor Service Manual with enclosures entitled:

- Display rules and regulations
- Floor plan with booth locations
- General Information
- Important deadlines and dates
- Important information
- Registration form
- Work authorization and request form

The enclosed documents (Additional Contract Provisions) are specially made terms of this contract. The Lessee agrees that, upon receipt of manual, they will read through the provisions and, if any provision is not acceptable, the Lessee will send written notification by certified mail to KIOGA. If such written notice is not received by KIOGA within 30 days from the receipt of the contract provisions by the Lessee, this contract shall become irrevocable and shall be in full force and effect, except as set forth in Paragraph 5, below. In the event the Lessee notifies KIOGA of any unacceptable provision in the Additional Contract Provisions within the time provided for herein, then this contract shall be terminated, and KIOGA shall immediately refund all sums paid by the Lessee pursuant to this contract.

IV. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if this application and contract, signed by the Lessee, is received by KIOGA less than 60 days prior to August 15, 2021, then, in such event, the Lessee shall be deemed to have agreed, by the execution of this application and contract, to all of the terms of the Additional Contract Provisions, although the Lessee may not be familiar with or aware of any or all of the Additional Contract Provisions. In such event, none of the provisions concerning termination of this agreement after submission of the original application and contract to KIOGA, shall be irrevocable, except as set forth in Paragraph 5, below, and all exhibit space rental fees shall be paid with the submission of this application and contract.

V. This contract may be cancelled by either party without penalty on or before June 16, 2021, by giving notice in writing to the other. KIOGA reserves the right to cancel or terminate this contract at any time and to withhold possession of exhibit space if the Lessee fails to perform on any condition of this contract or refuses to abide by the Additional Contract Provisions. In the event of cancellation by either party on or before June 16, 2021, this agreement shall become null and void, and any rental fees paid will be refunded only if the cancelled space(s) can be resold and all other booth space on the final floor plan is sold for the exhibition. A cancellation fee of 20% of the total cost of the space requested will be assessed on all refunds resulting from the cancellation after June 16, 2021.

VI. This contract shall be governed by the laws of the State of Kansas, USA.
