KIOGA - Voice of the Kansas Independent Petroleum Industry

Who We Are

Founded in 1937, the Kansas Independent Oil & Gas Association (KIOGA) is a nonprofit member organization representing oil and gas producers in Kansas, as well as allied service and supply companies. The purpose of KIOGA is to serve as an Advocate to promote the exploration, development, and production of oil and natural gas in Kansas at all local, state, and federal levels through bipartisan, common-sense solutions to challenges facing the oil and gas industry.

KIOGA represents the interests of the oil and gas industry at the local, state, and federal levels of government. KIOGA is committed to ensuring that tomorrow's economic climate will be one in which our members can grow and prosper. Our active presence before the Kansas Legislature, U.S. Congress, and state and federal regulatory agencies means that the concerns of independents like you are foremost in the minds of legislators and government officials. Our cooperative partnerships with the Domestic Energy Producers Alliance (DEPA), Independent Petroleum Association of America (IPAA), Interstate Oil & Gas Compact Commission (IOGCC), Council for a Secure America (CSA), National Stripper Well Association (NSWA), and others means the concerns of Kansas independent oil and gas producers are heard in Topeka and Washington.

Membership in KIOGA Gives You:

- A United Voice in Topeka & Washington

A United Voice In Topeka and Washington!

Few independent businesses have the budget, time, and expertise to individually tackle issues at the federal, state, and local levels of government as well as regulatory issues. KIOGA is the government relations branch for each of our members. Our personal and frequent contacts with key legislators and decision-makers effectively influence public policy on behalf of KIOGA members.

- Access to Legislative & Business Information

Whether you need to know how to comply with the latest laws and regulations or need legislative updates on pending issues, KIOGA provides you timely information that can affect your company's profit and growth opportunities. KIOGA members receive analyses and publications that help them keep their business competitive and current on industry trends and issues including the industry-leading and nationally-recognized KIOGA Newsletter, KIOGA Updates and KIOGA Express email communication tools designed to keep membership abreast of ongoing and breaking oil and gas news, American Oil & Gas Reporter magazine and more.

- The Power of Unity

KIOGA achieves results through a strong coalition of independent businesses with a common purpose and goal optimizing our effectiveness on critical issues.
